

All THE WAY FROM HAWAII...Citizen Potawatomi, Susan Campbell

Susan Campbell will present at TWO EVENTS in Downers Grove. The first event on Sunday will be about Potawatomi Indian History and Culture, and about Israel and Avis Blodgett, early settlers from Downers Grove, who were friends with Potawatomi leaders and part of the Underground Railroad. This event is for adults and children, age 8 and up. The following day, Monday, Susan Campbell will teach about Potawatomi beading, along with Rose Jarecki from Gallery's Choice of Downers Grove.

Susan Campbell will wear full Potawatomi regalia on Sunday.

Susan Campbell has just published a chap book of poetry, titled, Stained Glass Windows: Journey To My Roots. Susan Campbell will also read some of her poetry, along with her friend, Susan Estall, director of Blodgett Legacy Partnership, Inc., who will share a poem. Campbell is currently working on a book with Chief White Eagle. She co-authored, The Potawatomi Trail of Death, which documents a historical event similar to the well known Trail of Tears. Her book explains the forced removal in 1838 of Potawatomi Indians from Indiana through Illinois and Missouri to Kansas.

Dr. Godfrey, Citizen Potawatomi, was well received when he presented last June in Downers Grove and was sponsored by the same non-profit, Blodgett Legacy Partnership, Inc., that is sponsoring these events.

WHEN Sunday, Sept. 14th Potawatomi History & Culture from 2:00 pm to 3:00 pm. Sunday program is for adults and children, ages 8 and up FREE.

WHERE Sunday Event on Sept. 14, 2008 is held at the Downers Grove Public Library, in the Meeting Room at 1050 Curtiss St., Downers Grove, IL Seating on Sunday is limited to approx. 100.

WHEN Monday, Sept. 15th Potawatomi Beading from 3:30 pm to 5 pm. Monday is for school age children, teens, and adults. Cost: $15

WHERE Monday Event on Sept. 15, 2008 is held at Gallery's Choice, 1014 Curtiss St., Downers Grove, IL

Blodgett Legacy Partnership, Inc., a non-profit group, is sponsoring these programs. Please contact Blodgett Legacy Partnership, Inc. for more information. You can email the director, Susan Estall, at: susan@blodgettlegacy.org for more information.

Bead workshop is $15. Contact Gallery's Choice to register for beading class at 630-969-5660 or rosejarecki@galleryschoice.com.